Mr. Zimmerman stands high as a citizen in his own town. His remarkable popularity is best shown by the race he made in this (the Seventh) congressional district against Hon. Walter L. sional district against Hon. Walter L. Weaver for congress. Although the district is ordinarily 4,000 Republican, the donation to Wittenberg college of the Mr. Weaver won out with but a plurality of 276.

Mr. Zimmerman was asked for an expression of his views upon what the state platform should be. He replied: "The state platform should contain not less than four planks: Anti-imperialism; anti-trust; a more economical administration of the state affairs, and home rule in the cities and villages of the state. There should be a more economical administration of the state building on the corner of Main and Lime government. The taxpayers and citizens are becoming disgusted with it. A better example could not be cbtained than right here in Springfield. We have three fraternity homes here maintained with excellent and comfortable appointments for the wards of Masons, Knights of Pythias and sale Odd Fellows. The comforts and service to the occupants of these homes are superior to those in any of the one-half less than it costs the state to maintain her homes." CLARK COUNTY'S INDORSEMENT. The sentiment of the Democrats of Springfield and vicinity is found in the following resolution, adopted unanmously and with enthusiasm by the Clark county Democratic central committee
